New Library Study Room Policy beginning August 14, 2006.

Beginning Monday, August 14th the library will have a new study room policy and reservation system. For groups of two or more, study rooms may be reserved up to 24 hours in advance for a single study period of two hours. To reserve a room, students can come to the library in person, call (909) 469-5323, or use the online reservation system at <http://webapps.westernu.edu/rs>. The student who makes the reservation must bring in their WesternU ID and a valid driver's license in order to check out the room key. Walk-in reservations can be made if rooms are available. After a groups' time is up, if there are no other reservations for the room, the room can be renewed for another two hours. For more information on this new policy and instructions on using the online reservation system, please visit the Reserve a Study Room page on the library's website or call (909) 469-5323.
