Western University of Health Sciences
College of Osteopathic Medicine of the Pacific
D.O. Class of 2015
Vision Statement

We, the Class of 2015, in the College of Osteopathic Medicine of the Pacific, representing the California and Oregon campuses:

Commit ourselves to our profession by serving our community with integrity, compassion, empathy, and humility.

---

Devote ourselves to being culturally aware, understanding, and respectful of the diversity within our communities.

---

Pledge to provide quality healthcare and education for all people, especially the underserved and underprivileged.

---

Maintain a positive outlook by keeping sight of the reasons we chose to become physicians.

---

Recognize the importance of interprofessional teamwork and collaboration to better serve our patients and communities.

---

Dedicate ourselves to developing and maintaining balance throughout our community, amongst our colleagues, and within our families and personal lives.

---

Finally, we promise to embody the heritage and philosophy of Osteopathic Medicine, while simultaneously laying the foundation and revolutionizing the future of healthcare.