

WesternU College of Pharmacy cordially invites you to

Alumni Dinner

and Continuing Education Event

Saturday, September 10, 2011

Villa Nova Restaurant

3131 W. Coast Highway

Newport Beach, California 92663

6:00 p.m. – 9:30 p.m.

David Q. Pham, PharmD, BCPS

Managing Diabetes with Food, Activity, and Medication

Contact Hour 1 or CEU's 0.1

Activity Type: Knowledge Based • Target Audience: Pharmacists

Learning Objectives

- To list 5 food items that constitute 1 serving of carbohydrates
- To counsel patients on the amount of moderate and vigorous physical activity as recommended by the American Diabetes Association
- To compare the similarities and differences between DPP-IV inhibitors and GLP-1 agonist

Dinner Fees

Complimentary to all Alumni
Guests of Alumni $40

Response required by September 1, 2011

Please contact Renee Cook at (909) 706-3826 or rcook@westernu.edu

To earn CE credit, attendees will be required to actively participate in the entire session and evaluate the program.
UAN: 0059-0000-11-024-L01-P

Western University of Health Sciences is approved by the Accreditation Council for Pharmacy Education (ACPE) as a provider of continuing pharmaceutical education.

Western University
OF HEALTH SCIENCES

College of Pharmacy

www.westernu.edu