- a. Probation is defined as a period of time specified by the Dean of the College of Allied Health Professions during which the student's progress will be closely monitored by the Allied Health Student Academic Progress Committee, faculty advisor and the Program Chairperson. In order to closely monitor 2nd year students on probation, the PA program reserves the right to assign their clinical rotations. A student will be recommended for probation and asked to appear at a Student Academic Progress Committee (SAPC) meeting for any of the following reasons:
  1. For first year students, achieving a cumulative score of less than 70% in three or more courses at the end of the first nine weeks of the curriculum.
  2. Immediately upon receiving a course grade of "U" or "NCR" in any course.
  3. A grade point average of 2.75 or less.
  4. When directed to repeat a year for academic reasons.
  5. Seriously deficient ethical, professional or personal conduct.
