| 9:00 - 10:30 am | Not your parent’s diversity workshop: Why inclusion is important to organizational success
Open to all WesternU Faculty and Staff: IME & CAPE (both campuses)
Are you tired of hearing about and attending diversity workshops? Do you think that the diversity conversation is exclusive and leaves you and your experiences out of the equation? You might have a case of “diversity-fatigue.” Not to worry, this workshop will help you shift your focus from the dreaded 3 “D’s” (Diversity, Demographics, and Data), to a vibrant conversation about refreshing change that includes you, your unique perspectives, and how your valuable experiences can serve our team at COMP-NW, COMP, and WesternU, to be a collaborative, more innovative, and resilient organization as we lead the world of osteopathic medical education. | Mirabelle Fernandes-Paul, EdD
COMP-NW |
| 11 am - 1 pm | Spotlight on the Patient Case: Improving Impactful Learning
For All WesternU Faculty: IME and CAPE (both campuses)
After learning some background information about the benefits of case-based learning and some “do’s” and “don’ts” for case-writing, attendees will work in teams or individually to develop new patient cases based on topics they currently teach. Faculty will be encouraged to share their fresh ideas to solicit feedback from the group and make further improvements on case ideas. Be sure to bring any course material that would be useful in inspiring or shaping a case such as your syllabus, course goals, or topic-specific objectives. | Ann Kugler, PharmD

Required for all COMP-NW Employees Hired After March 2014

Director of Operations
COMP-NW |
| 11 am - 1 pm | Team Genius: What Genius Type Are You?
Open to all WesternU Faculty and Staff: IME and CAPE (both campuses)
Getting people to perform at their best is a universal challenge. It’s difficult when many feel they cannot truly use their unique talents. A recent Gallop poll of 198,000 corporate employees found that only 20% felt they had a chance to do what they do best every day. TEAM GENIUS helps you discover your “genius type”: IDEA, PLAN, PEOPLE, or DATA. Through discussions, mental activities and games, participants will learn about their individual strengths. | Karen Garman, EdD
