Description of events

Convo-Cookout: This is a social event where you can meet your fellow classmates (students only)

College Orientation: Meet the administration, faculty, and staff, learn how to navigate the curriculum with the available resources, get the scoop from 2nd years, engage with your new classmates during team jeopardy, scavenger hunts and more

Student Processing: Receive information from various University departments and take your official ID photo and graduate portrait

University Orientation Hear from University Student Affairs, the Executive SGA board, and learn about student benefits

President’s Ice Cream Social: Meet fellow students and administration

Parent’s Welcome: Your parents are invited to mix and mingle with faculty and administrators (parents only)

University Convocation and White Coat Ceremony: This marks the official opening to the academic year where you are formally welcomed by the President and other important figures of the University. Donning your white coat is tradition that marks your transition into your graduate health sciences program

Open House: Invite your family to the COMP-Northwest campus for refreshments
