The Class of 2021 has more females.

The Class of 2021 is predominantly Asian & White.

- Asian: 35.9%
- White: 34.9%
- Hispanic or Latino: 12.4%
- Unknown/Decline to State: 9.7%
- Two or more: 4.7%
- Black/African American: 1.9%
- Native Hawaiian/Pacific Islander: 0.3%
- American Indian/Alaska Native: 0.2%

Almost 1/3 of graduates, are the first in their family to have received a bachelor’s degree.

The Class of 2021 was mostly satisfied with their educational experiences at WesternU.

If they had to do it over again, most graduates would attend WesternU again.

The Class of 2021 was mostly satisfied with WesternU Student Services used.

The Class of 2021 reported similar agreement levels with their educational experiences.

Graduates were largely in agreement that interactions with faculty, staff, and students were positive experiences.

- Clinical preceptors added valuable experiences that helped me develop my skills.
  - 97.6%
- Faculty members served as positive role models.
  - 94.0%
- Classmates were professional.
  - 92.2%
- Working in groups enabled me to learn from my peers.
  - 88.9%
- Faculty members helped our group learn to work together.
  - 86.7%
- I had the opportunity to develop a mentor relationship with a faculty member.
  - 83.2%