

Edward M. Burns Jr. MSN, RN, NPD-BC, PCCN-K

Edward Burns joined HealthImpact in May 2021. Edward's 17-year healthcare career includes clinical practice in acute critical and progressive care, leadership roles, quality improvement initiatives, teaching and learning, and healthcare workforce professional development. As the Benner Institute for Teaching & Learning Director, Edward was instrumental in designing and creating the Clinical Faculty and Educator Certificate Program.

Edward recently completed a post-masters Clinical Nurse Specialist certificate in Adult Gerontology nursing. He holds an MSN from Grand Canyon University, specializing in nursing education and curriculum development, and a BSN from the University of Akron. Edward is ANCC board certified as a Nursing Professional Development Specialist and an AACN Progressive Care Certified Nurse.