

WesternU Student-Led Events: Advertising Guide

PLANNING THE EVENT

- Start planning early!
- Follow procedures for making a room reservation
- When in doubt, refer to the Student Leader Handbook
- Email flyers and designs to studentaffairs@westernu.edu

ADVERTISING THE EVENT

All flyers must be approved and stamped by University Student Affairs (USA) prior to distribution (physically or digitally).

Flyers will be removed if they do not contain a USA stamp of approval.

Where to Advertise

MONDAY MAIL (RECOMMENDED)

- Get flyers approved, apply for electronic boards, and broadcast to the entire campus in one form.
- All information must be submitted by Thursday at noon to be included in the next week's Monday Mail.

ELECTRONIC BOARDS

- Broadcast event details campuswide via electronic boards!
- Submit event details and request E-Board approval via Monday Mail form!

EMAIL COMMUNICATION

Email to distribution lists specific to your College/Program!

- Reach out to your class officers for more information

BULLETIN BOARDS (PRINTED)

Permitted areas for physical flyers:

- Bulletin boards and inside classroom doors (See map attached)
- Easels borrowed from USA

Prohibited areas for physical flyers:

Windows, glass doors, light posts, pillars, walls, floors, handrails, bathrooms, outside of class doors, Esplanade.

BEST PRACTICES FOR ADVERTISING EVENTS

- Branding: Use only approved WesternU logos (request via studentaffairs@westernu.edu), follow Graphics & Standards, and use the name correctly (WesternU or Western University of Health Sciences).
- Flyer Content: Include event details (Who/What/Where/When/Why/Contact), ticket purchasing information if needed, a call to action, and attach flyers in the body of email (not as an attachment).