

THE STUDENT BODY BYLAWS OF
WESTERN UNIVERSITY OF HEALTH SCIENCES
(Revised August 2019)

1 DEFINITIONS

1.1 The Student Body Bylaws

- 1.1.1 The Student Body Bylaws is a companion document to the Student Body Constitution. The Bylaws complement the Constitution; they do not supersede it.
- 1.1.2 All student body members must comply with the Student Body Bylaws.
- 1.1.3 Willful and deliberate disregard without justification of these bylaws shall subject a student to removal from the Student Government Association (SGA) office or position by the proper procedure.
- 1.1.4 These bylaws may be amended at any meeting of the Student Senate by a two-thirds vote and Student Body President concurrence, provided that the amendment has been previously submitted in writing to the Student Senate.

1.2 Parliamentary Authority

- 1.2.1 With the exception as listed below, the rules contained in the current edition of Robert's Rules of Order Newly Revised shall govern the SGA in all cases to which they are applicable and in which they are not inconsistent with the Student Body Constitution or Bylaws and any special rules of order the SGA may adopt. Exception: At the start of any meeting, the SGA may elect to conduct business in an informal manner with return to Robert's Rules as desired.

1.3 Quorum

- 1.3.1 For the purpose of conducting all SGA business, a simple majority of on-campus senators shall be defined as a quorum (In accordance with section 4.2.2 of the Student Body Bylaws).
 - 1.3.1.1 "On-campus" is defined as senators whose Western University of Health Sciences programs are in session during a given semester.
- 1.3.2 A quorum is the number of members entitled to vote who must be present in order that business can be transacted legally. A quorum is sufficient to vote on any and all matters as listed in the Student Body Bylaws.
- 1.3.3 A majority of the members of a specific SGA organization (i.e., the Student Senate, committees, etc.) shall constitute a quorum of that body.

4.1.4.1 A class can create another functional class officer position in lieu of using the designation of Student Senator At Large.

4.2 Student Senate Representation

4.2.1 Each class will be represented by their elected officers in the Student Senate based on the class' size at the start of the academic year. Because these officers represent their class in the Student Senate, they shall be called "Senators" in addition to their class officer titles.

4.2.2 For every twenty-five (25) students in each class, one (1) class officer will represent their classmates in the Student Senate via one (1) vote. The number of Voting Senators will be determined by rounding to the nearest twenty-five (i.e., 13 or more students) and be calculated by the Student Senate President with confirmation of class counts from the University Registrar.

4.2.2.1. Each Voting Senator is required to attend Student Government Association (SGA) meetings unless their absence is excused by the Student Senate President. If a Voting Senator fails to meet attendance requirements, the Student Senate President will notify the Director for University Student Affairs and the student affairs professional of the Senator's respective college.

4.2.4 In classes where the number of Voting Senators is less than the number of Class Officers elected, the order of precedence for serving as a Voting Senator shall be (1) Class President, (2) Class Vice-President, (3) Class Treasurer, and (4) Class Secretary. If more than four (4) Class Officers are eligible to represent their class in the Student Senate, the Class President may decide which officers will do so (in addition to the four positions named above). These officers will also be responsible for attending SGA meetings in accordance with the attendance policy.

4.3 The Elections Commission

4.3.1 The Elections Commission shall be responsible for all student body elections.

4.3.2 Membership

4.3.2.1 The Student Body Vice-President Pomona will chair the Elections Commission in Pomona and the Student Body Vice-President Lebanon will chair the Elections Commission in Lebanon.

The counting of the paper ballots in Lebanon will be done by the Chair of the Elections Commission and the Lebanon-based Council Chair.

4.8.1.1 All ballots will be retained for thirty days following the election and will be made available upon request.

4.9 Run-off Elections

4.9.1 If more than two candidates are on the official ballot for any one elective office and no one candidate receives a majority of the votes cast in the primary election, a run-off election shall be held by the Elections Commission Chair no later than three school days following the primary election.

4.9.1.1 The two candidates receiving the most votes for any one office in the primary election will be placed on the official run-off election ballot.

4.9.1.2 Voting will take place as outlined in section 4.1.3.

4.9.1.3 The run-off election will be determined by a simple majority of the ballots cast by the student body or the respective class, as the case may determine.

4.10 Special Elections

4.10.1 Referenda

- 4.10.1.1 The Elections Commission shall conduct referenda upon request by the Student Body President with a majority approval by the Student Senate, or upon receipt of a student body petition as outlined in Article VIII of the Student Body Constitution.
- 4.10.1.2 In the case of constitutional amendment referenda, complete copies of constitutional amendments are required to be on the official ballot. For changes made to existing constitutional provisions, both the existing text and proposed amendment(s) shall appear on the ballot. Voters shall vote "Yes" or "No" regarding the proposed amendment.
- 4.10.1.3 In the case where an Executive SGA position becomes vacant and there is no executive-elect the existing Executive SGA shall hold a special election either voted on by the Student Senate or the student body at large.

4.10.2 Recall Procedure

- 4.10.2.1 The method of recalling an officer shall follow the guidelines outlined in Article X of the Student Body Constitution.
- 4.10.2.2 An official ballot shall be prepared which shall include the reasons for demanding recall of the officer and the officer's justification of his or her course in office. Each statement shall not exceed two hundred words.
- 4.10.2.3 The official ballot shall state the name of the officer in question. Voters shall vote "Yes" to recall the officer or "No" to retain the officer.

4.11 Election Appeal

- 4.11.1 An Election Review Board (ERB) shall hear and rule on appeals from candidates claiming to have been unjustly injured by acts or rulings of the Elections Commission.
- 4.11.2 The ERB will be chaired by the Vice-President for Enrollment Management and Student Affairs and consist of one student from each academic program on campus that chooses to participate.
- 4.11.3 The ERB shall be appointed, in case of appeal, by the Student Body President. Appointments shall require confirmation by the Student Senate. The Student Body President shall be responsible for informing the Board members of their duties and responsibilities, including the necessity of maintaining a neutral stance and confidentiality with regards to election appeals.
- 4.11.4 All members of the ERB shall be currently enrolled students, except the chair. No member of the Board shall be a current Senator nor shall they have been a member during the semester of the election. No member of the ERB shall be actively involved with any campaign for elective office in any partisan way during membership on the Board.
- 4.11.5 The aggrieved candidate shall submit a written request for appeal to the ERB Chair within two school days after polling closes of the contested election.
- 4.11.6 The ERB shall hear one argument from the aggrieved candidate and another from the Elections Commission Chair, who shall represent the Elections Commission before the ERB.
- 4.11.7 The ERB shall be empowered to alter or rescind any act or ruling by the Elections Commission which the ERB deems to be in violation of the Student Body Constitution, Bylaws, or election guidelines.

- 4.11.8 ERB decisions are made by a simple majority vote of its members. The chair does not have a vote in these hearings, except in the case of a tie of votes among the ERB.
- 4.11.9 The ERB may reconvene to consider new evidence or new aspects of the case upon request of either the aggrieved candidate or the Elections Commission. New evidence must be presented within two school days of a decision by the ERB, after which time election results will be deemed final and may be announced to the student body.

4.12 Assumption of Office

- 4.12.1 Incoming class officers shall assume office on the first day of October, and continuing class officers shall assume office on the first day of April.
- 4.12.2 Senators shall terminate office at the beginning of their successor's term.
- 4.12.3 Student Body Executive Officer-elect positions for President, Vice-President Pomona, Vice-President Lebanon, Treasurer, Secretary, and Student Club Coordinator shall train under the guidance of the current respective executive board positions and assume all duties on the first day of April following the election.
 - 4.12.3.1 In the event of an executive officer member vacancy in which an "elect" position is filled, the elect-officer will assume the full roles and responsibilities of their respective position immediately.
 - 4.12.3.2 If the officer-elect, in assuming the duties of the executive board position, holds a current Student Senate or class officer position, their position as such will immediately be resigned, and its vacancy will be filled in accordance to the Student Body Constitution and Student Body Bylaws.
 - 4.12.3.3 In the event that a class officer position becomes vacant, the existing class board members, in consultation with their student affairs professional/department chair, may, by majority vote, hold an election for the vacant position, appoint a replacement or absorb responsibilities among existing board members. In the event of a stalemate, an election will be held.

4.13 Violation of the Election Code

- 4.13.1 Violation of the Election Code by any person or persons to the extent that it calls into question the validity of any election shall nullify the election results and require that another election be held. Violations will be ruled on by the Elections Commission.
 - 4.13.1.1 If a person files an election violation complaint to the Elections Commission Chair, it must be a written statement. The complainant must be identified to the Chair and Director for University Student Affairs, but will remain anonymous for the Elections Commission ruling.
 - 4.13.1.2 The subject of the complaint will be notified by the Elections Commission Chair or Director for University Student Affairs. Subject will have the option to provide a written statement and will remain anonymous for the Elections Commission ruling.
 - 4.13.1.3 Both the complainant and subject written statements will be presented to the Elections Commission for ruling.

- 4.13.2 In the event that a candidate is responsible for willfully violating the Election Code, the candidate will be disqualified from the election in question and not allowed to participate in any future student body or class election as a candidate.
- 4.13.3 If a breach of the Election Code occurs through no fault of any candidate to the extent that it calls into question the validity of the election, the election results will be nullified and all candidates will be allowed to participate in future elections.
- 4.13.4 The Elections Commission will rule on whether the Election Code has been violated. Candidates or students may also appeal to the ERB.
