

Ambulatory Team Objective Structured Clinical Examination (ATOSCE)

The materials included in the ATOSCE Toolkit and described in the Educator's Guide are licensed free of charge to educators and researchers in geriatrics, gerontology and the health professions. However, as these include copyrighted works, users must acknowledge the Educator's Guide, which may be referenced as follows: Western University of Health Sciences. (2015). Educator's Guide for the Ambulatory Team Objective Structured Clinical Examination. Pomona, CA.

This publication was made possible by Cooperative Agreement No. 6UB4HP19202 from the Health Resources and Services Administration (HRSA). Its contents are solely the responsibility of the authors and do not necessarily represent the official view of HRSA.

Important Usage Conditions:

The ATOSCE materials are provided "AS-IS" AND WITH ALL FAULTS, and no warranty of any kind is made by the authors or providers of the ATOSCE materials. Users of these materials are solely responsible for their use, including, without limitation, responsibility for compliance with all educational and healthcare-related laws and regulations.

The ATOSCE is provided for your institution's use only and is not to be disseminated to third parties without written permission from Western University of Health Sciences. The Educator's Guide is for educators and researchers and is not for direct distribution to students.

Educators may modify or customize the materials described here in order to meet their own institution's needs. Works arising from the Toolkit must acknowledge the ATOSCE project as a footnote on the document as follows: Adapted from Educator's Guide for the Ambulatory Team Objective Structured Clinical Examination. © Western University of Health Sciences, Pomona, CA 2015.

Use of the ATOSCE signifies agreement with the above conditions. I agree to comply with the above terms and conditions and understand that if they are violated that I and my institution will forfeit our license agreement for the ATOSCE unless corrective action is taken.
